Dear Mr. Hallmark...One More Time

by Susan Whitmore-Rewritten 2012

Hello there Mr. Hallmark man, I wrote to you in May To ask that words of love be shared With my mom on Mother's Day.

Just as there is no card for Mom To let her know I care, There is no card for my dad, too, And I have so much to share.

It's very hard for my loving dad To know that I'm okay. To protect me was his job, he feels, So he thinks he failed some way.

Although I had to leave this world, While still considered young, There is no way he ever failed— There's no more he could have done. I hear him crying in the car, The shower hides his tears. He feels he has to be so strong For those he holds so dear.

My dad he often gets so mad At what became of me. He wants so much to understand, He says, "How could this be?"

I somehow need to let him know, Though impossible it seems— For him to live and laugh again Will fulfill so many dreams.

The card I need to send right now To a dad as great as mine, Will thank him for the love he gave Throughout my brief lifetime.

He's still the one that I call Dad, Our bond's forever strong, 'Cuz even though he can't see me, Our love lives on and on.

Please help me find a way
To tell my dad that when
It comes his time to leave the earth
I'll be waiting there for him.

And also, Mr. Hallmark man, Please help him to believe, That nothing will ever change the fact That my dad he'll always be.

My dad he tends to question Those things he cannot see. I always send him little signs To say, "Hey, Dad, it's me!"
